

September School Holiday with the Plaintiff and shall spend every April and December School Holiday with the Defendant.

6. While the minor child is with the Defendant for the School Holidays as aforesaid, the Defendant shall be responsible for his maintenance.

7. The Plaintiff and Defendant shall be entitled to reasonable access to the child while the child is with the other parent.

8. The religious upbringing of the child shall be subject to agreement between the Plaintiff and the Defendant, and the parties agree that they shall be guided in deciding upon such religious upbringing by the Beth Din.

9. The career of the child after he has left school shall be subject to agreement between the parties, and the parties shall be guided in determining such career by the child's own wishes, provided however that this shall be subject to the Plaintiff's ability to finance such career, together with such financial assistance from the Defendant as may be necessary, and which she may be able to render.

10. In the event of the illness of the said minor child, the parties shall agree as to the treatment and matters pertaining thereto, and agree that they will be guided in making such decisions by the Medical Practitioner attending to the minor child.

11. The minor child shall not be removed to a point which is more than 40 (forty) miles distance from the City Hall, Johannesburg, without the consent of both the Plaintiff and the Defendant, provided however that either parent shall be entitled, during such holidays as the minor child is with such parent /

